

Eugene Baranowski, B.Sc., M.Sc.

Under the direction of his father, a renowned European artistic painter, Eugene started painting at an early age and sold his first painting at the age of six. In parallel with his scientific career, he has continued to study and take art course throughout his life.

Eugene's painting themes include, landscape, seascape, animal and architecture. His preferred painting mediums are oil and watercolour and his style can be described as realistic with a touch of impressionism.

Eugene's paintings are frequently exhibited in the Ottawa area and can be found hanging in public and private collections in North America and Europe.
