

Edna Cobb

At Present, Edna prefers to work with acrylic paint on canvas but continues painting with watercolours on Arches rag paper, including mono-prints.

Background:

Edna studied for two years at l'école des Beaux Arts in Montreal, receiving an Honourable Mention in the second year. She worked one year with Iacurto in Quebec City using oil paint and acrylics. She has taken many course at the Ottawa School of Art with Ken Finch, Carol Weidman and others. She has also participated in the summer programme at St. Lawrence College in Brockville where she studied painting in watercolours with Henry Vyfinkle, Japanese brush painting and took several other courses in abstract art forms and techniques.

Memberships:

Edna is presently a member of the Ottawa Art Association.

Member of Art Lending since 1998

Medium - acrylic on canvas