

Leila Kathleen Crosby

Leila Kathleen Crosby has always painted. A childhood in Nova Scotia kindled a life-long love of the sea and woods, and a life-long love of music and painting.

Beginning with pencils and crayons, she has experimented with charcoal, conté, collage, oils, pastels and watercolour. She works with different techniques and subjects from landscapes to still life to abstraction.

Leila graduated with a degree in art from Acadia University, in Wolfville, N.S. She continued her training in Fredericton, N.B., and in the Ottawa area with Leonard Gerbrandt, Brodie Shearer and Henry Vyfinkel. She has won awards in exhibitions, notably one from A.Y. Jackson. She is a member of the Ottawa Watercolour Society and a Founding Member of Art Lending of Ottawa.

Member of Art Lending of Ottawa since 1970
