

Doreen Hardiman

Doreen is an artist who enjoys painting a variety of subjects. A self-taught artist, she has advanced her skills through study at the Ottawa School of Art, private tuition and workshops. She enjoys experimenting with different media and her work reflects this interest. She is best known for her works painted on silk, but recently has been painting acrylics on canvas.

A member of various art associations, she exhibits in a number of exhibitions each year. Among them are the Ottawa Art Festival, the Manotick Art Show and the Rideau Valley Art Festival in Westport. Paintings may also be seen at the Ottawa Little Theatre and Art Lending of Ottawa.

Her paintings hang in private collections in Canada, the U.S.A. and Europe. She also has a number of paintings in the corporate collection of the City of Ottawa.

Her studio is located in the village of Navan, southeast of the Ottawa-Orleans area.

Member of Art Lending of Ottawa since 1992

Media - watercolour, collage, dyes on silk, mixed media