

Dorothy Hayter

Dorothy's life-long passion for colour is expressed in painting, fashion design and copper enamelling.

She has studied painting with many local teachers and has taken numerous workshops with internationally known artists. She feels "the learning never ends".

Dorothy is a Fellow of the Ottawa Watercolour Society, an Associate of the Canadian Society of Painters in Watercolour, and a member of the Kanata Civic Gallery, Artrise Gallery Co-Op, Nepean Fine Arts League, Kanata Art Club and the Ottawa Art Association.

Dorothy is a resourceful teacher with strong communication skills. Currently she is teaching for the Kanata Art Club and Artrise Gallery. She is the owner of Body Art Activewear, a company that manufactures active sportswear for children and adults. Recently she introduced a brush holder called "Brush Wrap" to the market.

Member of Art Lending of Ottawa since 1997
