

William Silas Salter

Born: London, England

Lived in Manitoba and Alberta before moving to Ottawa

Education: University of Alberta - Master of Arts, Geography (Cartography)

Worked as a cartoonist on the university newspaper, which together with map making, led to his interest in pen and ink

Exhibits: From 1971 to 1991, in Elsie's Art Gallery, Richmond
Through 1970's and 1980's, in Nepean Fine Arts League's Clothesline Fair
Currently, exhibits at Arteca Gallery, Kanata

Member of Art Lending of Ottawa since 1974

Media - pen and ink, watercolour, and combination of both, oils

