

Sheila Turner-Whalen

Born in Almonte, Ont., Sheila received her education at Carleton Place & area schools, before taking up residence in Kanata.

Sheila paints mostly in watercolour, but also works with both acrylic, fluid acrylic and pencil & ink. Sheila's main interest is in buildings, landscapes, and flowers. She also enjoys adding abstracts for variety. Her work demonstrates her love of clean, clear colour.

Sheila spent three semesters studying under Henry Vyfinkel at Kemptville Agricultural College. She has taken classes from many well-known artists such as Jean Dobie, Tony Couch, Mary Nunn, Zoltan Zabo, Margo Wild, Lila Lewis Irving, Claudia Jean McCabe, and Barbara Elmslie.

Sheila is a member of the Kanata Arts Club, Nepean Fine Arts League, and most recently, Art Lending of Ottawa. Her works have received 2 honourable mention awards at the Nepean Fine Arts Members' night, and have been accepted at several juried shows.

Member of Art Lending of Ottawa since 2000

Media - watercolour and acrylic